

WHY M&RR EMPLOYEES LIKE WORKING/LIVING IN FREDERICK, MARYLAND

The background of the slide features a photograph of a church with a prominent, multi-tiered steeple. The church is light-colored, possibly white or cream, with arched windows. To the right, a portion of a red brick building with white window frames is visible. The sky is overcast and grey.

1. Big city convenience with a small town vibe
2. Centrally located and easily accessible to both Washington, D.C. and Baltimore
3. Within a short and easy drive to year round resorts, including eastern MD beaches, state parks and the mountains / ski resorts
4. Historic downtown with great restaurants, antique shops and performing arts
5. Transportation hub – close to three major airports, Amtrak and major highways
6. Great place to raise a family – excellent schools, affordable housing, and plenty of child-friendly activities / events for the whole family to experience
7. History on your doorstep – Frederick dates back to the colonial days and played a central role in the Civil War, surrounded by key battleground and tourism sites
8. Close to national baseball, football and ice hockey teams, with the Frederick Keys minor league baseball team right in town
9. Home styles for all tastes – choose to live in the city or the country, a historic home or new construction, whatever suits you best
10. Moderate climate with four distinct seasons
